BRYAN SPEAKS ON STATE AND NATION AT PEORIA TODAY

Says He Believes in Preserving State Rights and Federal Control.

Adlai Stephenson Tells What He Would Do as Governor.

CONVENTIONS HELD TODAY

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 9.—Adlai Stephenson, Democratic candidate for governor, in addressing the state Democratic convention favored tariff revision and denounced alleged Republican extravagance. He boasted that prosperity is confined to a favored few and living expenses of the masses has increased 40 per cent. Protection is a breeder of trusts and the crying evil of the day. He promises if elected to pay particular attention to an efficient non-partisan management of the state charitable institutions.

Mr. Bryan spoke on "The State and the Nation."

"The success of our system of government rests upon the careful observance of the constitutional division of power between the state and the nation. A number of expressions have been coined to describe the relations existing between the federal government and the several subdivisions, but no one has been more felicitous in definitions than Jefferson or more accurate in drawing lines of demarcation. He presented the historic position of the Democratic party when he declared himself in favor of 'the support of the state governments in all their rights, as the most competent administrations for our domestic concerns, and the surest bulwarks against anti-republican tendencies,' and 'the preservation of the general government in its whole constitutional vigor, as the sheet anchor of our safety at home and peace abroad.' The Democratic platform adopted at Denver, quotes, the language of Jefferson and declares that it expresses the party's position at this time.

"It would be almost as difficult to maintain a free, self-governing Republic over a large area and with a large population without state governments as it would be to maintain such a republic without a general government. The interests of the different parts of the country are so varied, and the matters requiring legislative attention so numerous, that it would be impossible to have all of the work done at the national capital. One has only to examine the bills introduced in each congress, and then add to the number of bills introduced at the legislative sessions of each of the forty-six states, to realize that it would be beyond the power of any body of men to legislate intelligently on the multitude of questions that require consideration.

"Not only would national legislators lack the time necessary for investigation, and therefore lack the information necessary to wise decision, but the indifference of representatives in one part of the country to local matters in other parts of the country would invite the abuse of power. Then, too, the seat of government would be so far from the great majority of the voters as to prevent that scrutiny of public conduct which is essential to clean and honest government. The union of the separate states under a federal government offers the only plan that can adapt itself to indefinite extension.

"Our constitution expressly reserves to the states and to the people respectively all powers not delegated to the federal government, and only by respecting this division of powers can we hope to keep the government within the reach of the people and responsive to the will of the people. Because in all disputes as to the relative spheres of the nation and the states the final decision rests with the federal courts, the tendency is naturally toward centralization, and greater care is required to preserve the reserved rights of the states than to maintain the authority of the general government.

Another Force.
"In recent years another force has been exerting an increasing influence in extending the authority of the central government. I refer to the great corporations. They prefer the federal courts to the state courts, and employ every possible device to drag litigants before United States judges. They also prefer congressional regulation to state regulation, and those interested in large corporations have for years been seeking federal incorporation. The Democratic party will resist every attempt to obliterate state lines, whether the attempt is made through legislation or through judicial interpretation. Amendment of the organic law by

Orville Wright Remains in Air Almost an Hour and Breaks Record For Aeroplanes at Ft. Meyer Today

No Doubt Now That Government Will Buy Flying Machine at Contract Price $25,000 From Inventor.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Orville Wright broke the aeroplane records at Fort Meyer this morning. He was in the air 57 minutes and 31 seconds. His average speed was 38 miles an hour.

The Aeroplane worked perfectly and occasionally rose a hundred feet, and once 120. It alighted without injury. There was great enthusiasm for Wright among army officers and citizens.

This morning's test was unofficial, but a repetition is deemed easy. It practically assures the government's acceptance of the machine. The contract price is $25,000. Another flight will be made this afternoon.

Buck's Stove Case.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 9.—The Bucks Stove company contempt case against Gompers and Mitchell and other officers of the American Federation is up in the circuit court this morning. Justice Gould, appointed W. S. Smith, master in chancery, to take testimony and limits to 60 days. The company's attorney made a scene, accusing Mitchell of making a false affidavit in the case.

Fixing the Jefferson School.

The members of the Jefferson school improvement league are cleaning the building, and making it ready for the opening of the session. All of the desks are being scoured, and the walls and ceilings brushed. A complete new floor has been laid in the building, and the building presents a much better appearance. The ladies of the league are devoting personal attention to the work, and promise to have the cleanest building in the city when the work is completed.

AMERICAN CITIZENS HELD.

Imprisonment of Mexicans Born in United States to Be Investigated.

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 9.—Although Robert Rechy, Henry Aguirre, Frank Medina and Catalino Lopez, El Paso-born Mexican lads, arrested by Mexican rurales, have been held in the Mexican barracks in Juarez four days and nights, no charges have yet been preferred against them, but they are allowed now to see friends. Acting Secretary of State Adee has wired American Consul Edwards to investigate and report on the case.

MORE BOATS WILL ENTER CUMBERLAND RIVER TRADE, IF THE REPORT IS TRUE

Nashville People Purchase One Packet and Are Having Another Built, It is Said.

News has floated down the Cumberland river from Nashville that the Ryman line of steamboats will have to get up and hustle in order to keep the Cumberland river packet trade to themselves as they have done since steam-boating has been in progress.

Eph. Bean, an engineer, left Nashville last Saturday for Marietta, O., to bring out the Robert Rhea, a packet boat about the size of the H. W. Buttorf, and put her in the upper Cumberland river trade in opposition to the Ryman line. Bean will go as

M'CARREN WINS IN DEMOCRATIC CITY PRIMARIES

New York, Sept. 9.—By carrying eighteen of the twenty-three assembly districts of Brooklyn Senator Patrick H. McCarren today maintained his political control of King's county, only four of the seven revolutionists returning anti-McCarren leaders. William E. Melody, in the Fourth assembly district; William B. McGuire, in the Sixth, and William A. Doyle of the Ninth failed in their efforts to dethrone the pro-McCarren leaders. In the Twenty-third, Tenth, Eleventh and Twentieth districts the insurgents were successful. This, however, will not affect the situation, and leaves McCarren in control of the Democratic county committee. The only unexpected success of the anti-McCarren faction was in the Second assembly district, where former Alderman John J. Bridges was elected leader.

Despite charges of fraud made in advance of the polling by both sides, very little disorder was observed. Only forty arrests were made for attempted illegal voting, and at no time was it necessary to send out the platoon of police held in reserve.

Schooner Lost

London, Sept. 9.—There is another storm on the English channel. The schooner Phyllis Gray is lost and her crew of nineteen was drowned. Many small vessels are missing.

Club House Burns

Philadelphia, Sept. 9.—Philadelphia Cricket club house burned this morning and a man was burned to death. Two women were seriously injured by jumping. All were employees.

Drought Damaging

Reports from all over Western Kentucky indicate that late tobacco, corn and forage crops have been greatly injured by the drought that has prevailed for a month. Over half the tobacco crop has been cut and housed; but a large portion of the corn crop is late on account of the wet spring and will be cut short by the continued dry weather. Marketers say that vegetables are almost ruined.

WARRANT FOR BARBER

The first warrant ever sworn out for a barber failing to secure a state license from the state barber examiners was sworn out this morning by Walter Prakes, one of the examiners, against S. A. Slayden, colored. Slayden was not in condition for trial this morning and Police Judge D. A. Cross continued the case until tomorrow morning. Slayden is a colored barber, and it is alleged that he refused to take out a license. The fine for refusing to take out the license is not less than $10 or more than $100 and 90 days in jail. This is the first warrant issued in Paducah for an alleged violation. The law has been tested in several cities, but the examiners have won out.

The fiscal court had extended his authority to collect back taxes a year, but he had collected after that time. It was charged. However, the indictment did not explicitly state this point.

RIGHT OF SEARCH TO BE EXERCISED AT BENNETT TRIAL

No Pistols Will be Allowed in Court Room at Clarks-ville, Tenn.

Night Rider Case Going to Trial There.

WALTER HUNT AND GARDNER

Clarksville, Tenn., Sept. 9.—A special term of the Montgomery county criminal court convened this morning to try John Gardner and Walter Hunt, charged with the murder of Vaughan Bennett.

Judge Tyler gave instructions to the officers that no man should be admitted to the court room before being searched for arms and to admit only jurymen without permission of the court. Attorneys for both the state and defense announced ready for trial.

The defense made application for the doors to be opened and the trial be made public; also that the record show that at the hour of opening the court the doors were locked to spectators and the attorneys for the defense subjected to being searched before they entered the court room.

The defense asked for time to go over the panel of one hundred jurymen summoned, which was granted.

The entire morning was taken up by the defendants' attorney in examining the qualifications of the jurymen and the selection of a jury will not be until this afternoon.

The defendants are alleged to have waylaid and shot from ambush Vaughn Bennett on the night of March 9, 1908, near Woodford. Bennett was found on the roadside the next morning in a dying condition, succumbing to his wound without regaining consciousness. Two dead horses were near Bennett, as were three shotguns, the latter emptied of their loads. Earl Bennett, a brother of the dead young man, was with him on the night of the tragedy, and he said that they had been waylaid while on their way home. With the exception of this, he has never made any public statement. The indictment of the defendants followed an investigation by the grand jury. All parties connected with the trial are prominent and much interest is manifested throughout the dark tobacco district.

Mississippi Night Riders Warn Kentucky Teamsters to Leave or Receive Black Patch Treatment

Kevil Men Find Warning Note That Calls Them "Kentucky Devils" and Bundle of Switches at Their Camp.

Taking their cue from the original Kentucky night riders farmers of Harris, Miss., argued because eight teams and drivers were imported from Ballard county to haul logs and lumber by the Tulare Lumber company, regulation night rider notices, accompanied by bunches of switches, were posted on a tree near the camp, warning the "Kentucky Devils" to leave that portion of the country or stand the consequences suggested by the switches. The notices were posted last week and they were given until Monday night to vacate, but word received by their friends today indicate that the teamsters do not intend to obey the command.

The party which left Kevil weeks ago is composed of Luf Prazier, Lex Ragland, Sherman Gools, John Turner, Ezra Hagart, Jeff Lee, Clarence and Harvey Whipple, well known white citizens and Asa Hanner, a negro. They were imported to Mississippi by the lumber people because of the exorbitant prices charged by native teamsters for hauling. The Mississippians objected to their presence and several threats against them were said to have been uttered, but no attention was paid them by the Kentuckians. Last week notices were posted near the door of their camp and also at the lumber yard, warning the "Kentucky Devils" as they were called to get out of that country by Monday night. A bundle of switches accompanied the notices. The Kentuckians have decided to remain and have made preparations to stay there until Christmas.

The output of the Tulare Lumber company is controlled by the Faust Lumber company, of Paducah.

JOE CANNON PAYS COMPLIMENTS TO PRES. ROOSEVELT

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 9.—The Republican state platform is a replica of that adopted last March, excepting the local option. Hopkins and Deenen were endorsed. Cannon was the temporary and permanent chairman and made the opening address. Deenen, Hopkins, Shaw and others spoke. Shaw favored the protective tariff, and criticised the depositors guaranty plan. He eulogized Taft and said Bryan is wrong on every public question.

Springfield, Sept. 9.—Cannon spoke nearly an hour and characterized Bryan as the "great I am, the great American boss" and unequalled autocrat. He praised Taft, and said he always considered Roosevelt great; but "if he produced Taft he is greater than he gave him credit for being."

Conductor Maxwell Better.

Conductor John Maxwell is able to sit up at the railroad hospital and expects to be strong enough to go to his home at Jackson, Tenn., before many days. Two of the bullets were extracted from his breast by the physicians.

MISSISSIPPI NIGHT RIDERS WARN KENTUCKY TEAMSTERS TO LEAVE OR RECEIVE BLACK PATCH TREATMENT

BROADWAY CHURCH ASKS CONFERENCE TO CONVENE HERE

The Memphis conference, Methodist Church, South, probably will meet at the Broadway church in Paducah in November, 1909. At the meeting of the official board it was decided to issue the formal invitation to the conference, which is presided over by Bishop E. E. Hoss. It has been ten years since Paducah has entertained the conference. The next session of the conference will be at Covington, Tenn., November 11.

Eucharistic Congress

London, Sept. 9.—The nineteenth annual International Eucharistic congress began for the first time in a protestant country.

The conference, the largest yet held, and the importance of the papers to be read at the various sectional meetings make this gathering of Roman Catholic clergy an extremely interesting one. Though certain changes have to be recorded in the personnel of the group of prelates who have intimated their intention of attending, the London conference can yet claim to be unique in regard to the names of distinguished ecclesiastics participating.

Spain, represented by Cardinal Sanchez Hervas, the archbishop of Toledo and patriarch of the West Indies, including the pope's legate, Cardinal Vanutelli, therefore there will be seven members of the sacred college in attendance.

The American delegation is not as large as had been expected, many of the bishops having been kept at home by the affairs of their dioceses, while Archbishop Farley has been unable to continue his trip from the continent. Besides Cardinal Gibbons, however, there will be present Bishop Foley, of Detroit, Bishop Kelley, of Savannah, and Bishop Hendricks, of Cebu, Philippine Islands. The bishop of Valley Field, of Quebec will be among the Canadian representatives.

Town is Moved

Oklahoma City, Sept. 9.—Federal officers failed in their effort to prevent the removal of the town of Eschitti. It consolidated with Kell, compromising the long controversy. Kell bought Eschitti and moved its 90 buildings three miles.

FOREST FIRES IN NORTHWEST HAVE NOT BEEN STOPPED

Duluth, Minn., Sept. 9.—Fires continue to menace Hibbing and Grand Marais, Minn.; Sturgis, S. D.; Calumet, Vulcan, Loretta and Norway, Mich. Communication is interrupted. Michigan mining properties are damaged.

Hibbing, the largest and most prosperous town in the Mesaba range, is threatened with destruction by fire.

Despite the fact that the city is fairly well protected by clearings and large open pit mines, the flames have been getting closer all the time and every place of business in the town is closed and all the men are out fighting the flames. Duluth firemen with an engine and hose, left for Hibbing on a special train this afternoon in response to a request for help.

The smoke from the forest fires which surround the town, made Hibbing so dark that the electric lights had been turned on there in the day to enable the citizens to see their way about. The smoke is stifling and is causing a great deal of discomfort. Unless the wind changes Coleraine and Bovey will be safe from the fire for the present at least.

Grand Marais, Minn., on the north shore, is in the clutches of the fire demon. The people are in worse straits than the range people, in that they have no place to flee to. The forest fires are raging within a mile of the town.

It is reported that homesteaders along the north shore have left their cabins and are sleeping in tents and in the open, close to the lake shore.

CONTRACT IS LET FOR LEE SCHOOL SANITARY WORK

Committee Gives Job to Lockwood and Tuttle to Hurry it Up in Time.

Secretary Kelly Says No Reason For Complaint.

CONSIDERS PRICE REASONABLE

The contract for the sanitary building at the Lee school, Fourth and Ohio streets, probably will be let this afternoon by the sanitary committee to Contractors Lockwood & Tuttle. The price of $1,400 has been agreed upon, and it is thought that the sanitary committee will meet this afternoon to sign the papers. Under the contract the contractors will not receive the money for a year.

Instead of the board letting the contract, power was delegated to the sanitary committee, which did not advertise for bids, but asked several contractors to bid, and then the brick work, and plumbing was given out by sub-bids. Trustee C. G. Kelly, secretary of the school board this morning, said: "We did not advertise for bids, because it takes two weeks before the contract may be let. We asked several contractors to bid but Jack Cole, and Lockwood & Tuttle were the only two that had in bids. Lockwood & Tuttle had the lower bid at $1,400. It would be difficult to advertise for bids under the circumstances as the money will not be paid for a year or upon the result of the issue. I think the price was as reasonable as we could have secured."

The building will be of brick 27x21 feet, and will have a flush tank. The members of the sanitary committee are Trustees Walston, Winstead, Murray and Kelly and President Burdant.

Some dissatisfaction has arisen over the letting of the contract without going through the formality of advertising for the bids. It is said that some contractors did not know that the work was to be let in time to make estimates on the proposed work. The committee is anxious to have the work done by the time school sessions begin but school will begin Monday, and it will be impossible for the building to be put in use for two or three weeks after the children are at the building.

All Vacancies Filled.
After many efforts Superintendent J. A. Carnegie has succeeded in filling all the positions with teachers, and Monday the schools will open with a full corps unless some unforeseen delay blocks the way. Miss Catharine Kyser, of Ithaca, N. Y., has accepted the position in the High school as assistant teacher of mathematics and science, and has started for Paducah. She will arrive Thursday evening. The telegram was received by Professor Carnegie this afternoon. She is a graduate of Cornell university with the degree of M. A., and has been assistant to Professor Tarr, the author of the physical geography that is used in the public schools.

The vacancy caused in the grade department by the resignation of Miss Marie Wilcox has been filled by Miss Mollie Brown Stevenson, of Hopkinsville. She is a graduate of the State Normal School, and holds a state certificate. By the last of this week all of the teachers will have arrived for the work. Practically all of the home teachers and some of the out-of-city teachers have taken the physical examination. With this over all that remains is the ringing of the bell that will call the pupils to books again.

Wife Alleged He Struck Her.
George Thompson, foreman of the men working on the new concrete bridge on the Husband's road, was arrested this morning by J. T. Moore, who is a deputy sheriff. Mrs. Lottie Thompson, of Florence station, his wife swore out the warrant before Magistrate C. W. Emery, charging him with striking her. Thompson was recognized for his appearance before Magistrate Emery this afternoon, when the trial will be held.

Oyster Dredgers Defy Law.

Snow Hill, Mo., Sept. 9.—Defying the sheriff and his deputies, a fleet of 200 oyster vessels sailed into Sineux bay today and began illegal oystering. Their offense is in taking undersized oysters, that is, oysters which measure less than two and a half inches from end to end.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 9.—In the Mission Street Pavilion this afternoon, what promises to be one of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a pugilistic event in San Francisco, Battling Nelson, the formidable Dane, will step into the arena to defend the lightweight championship against the man from whom he won the title in the same ring on July 4 last. His opponent will be Joe Gans, the veteran negro lightweight, who had the championship honors with ease until his second encounter with the Chicago lad.

The bout is slated as a forty-five round affair. According to the articles, 70 per cent of the gate receipts will go to the fighters, 60 per cent of that to the winner and 40 per cent to the loser. The weight will be 133 pounds, stripped, ringside. Eddie Smith will referee the contest.

Reports from the Nelson camp today are to the effect that the Dane is in the best of condition and ready for the going to call him into the ring. Reports of the same rosy hue emanate from the Gans quarters. Whatever the true condition of the negro may be it is certain that he has been trained before. Several weeks in the mountains and a period of strict training in quarters are said to have put him in the best possible shape. The hard training in which he has indulged and the fact that he has been boxing better than he did when he worked for his previous battle with Nelson has given his admirers so much confidence that they are betting freely on him to beat the Dane. The indications are that there will be plenty of betting at even money at the ringside.

Exactly 147 people attended a meeting of the Bryan club last night at the city hall to hear Mr. Hal Corbett, Judge David Cross, County Attorney Alben Barkley and Col. Gus Singleton. The club decided to again invite Hon. Charles K. Wheeler to address it before September 20. When the officers discovered that a county campaign chairman has not been appointed, City Clerk Maurice McIntyre, who is secretary of the club, was instructed to write a letter to Mr. Johnson, of the state committee.

Killed Wife and Shot Himself.
Brookville, Ind., Sept. 9.—Jesse Woodruff, sixty-three years old, crushed his wife's skull with a flat-iron early today causing her death. He then fired one bullet into his own body and another into his head. His death is only a question of a short time.

Doctor Said Consumption

C. W. WEAVER.

Mr. C. W. Weaver, of Bristol, Vt., who was told by his doctor that he had only a short time to live, as he had consumption, takes Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, which was recommended by the doctor, gains vigor and strength every day, and is in better health than he had been in years before taking it.

In a recent letter Mr. Weaver writes: "Two years ago my doctor told me I had consumption, that I could live but a short time, recommending to me at the same time Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. I have taken it ever since according to directions. I feel better and stronger than I have for seven years past. Yes I heartily endorse Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a cure for consumption."

Thousands of letters like this are received daily from grateful men and women who cannot say too much in praise of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for the benefits derived from its use.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic stimulant; and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

It cures nervousness, typhoid, malaria, every form of stomach trouble, diseases of the throat and lungs, and all run down and weakened conditions of the body, brain and nerves. It is prescribed by doctors and is recognized as a family medicine everywhere.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in large sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1.00. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Write Consulting Physician, Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y., for free illustrated medical booklet and free advice.

FEUD SPIRIT LIVES

RUCK COTTONGAME KILLS MAN AT HAMILTON, OHIO.

Victim Was Ferris Arnett, From Kentucky—Witnesses in Hargis-Marcum Trials.

Hamilton, O., Sept. 9.—Ferris Arnett, 23 years old, who came here recently from Breathitt county, Kentucky, where he has been involved in feud troubles and who is said to be wanted on three charges in Breathitt county, was shot to death here last night by Ruck Cottongame, a farmer from Breathitt county.

Cottongame keeps a Kentucky boarding house here. Arnett was stopping at Cottongame's house and was lying on a couch. Mrs. Cottongame, William Fields and Liza Feiton were in the room. Cottongame entered, carrying a pistol and fired two shots through Arnett's body, killing him in a few minutes. Cottongame walked out and was arrested on Third street.

At police headquarters he said that Arnett had followed him here to kill him. The men were witnesses on opposite sides in the Hargis-Marcum feud murder trial and the enmity leading to the murder grew from that tragedy.

HEARST PARTY LOSES LEADER.

Judge B. L. D. Guffy Flogs Back Into Republican Ranks.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 9.—Back to the ranks of the Republican party Judge B. L. D. Guffy, of Morgantown, the leader of the Independence league in Kentucky, has flopped after a brief leadership of the Independents in this state. He says he is returning to the Republican party because he desires reforms, and his idea of how that reform can be brought about is interesting.

"If there is going to be any reform accomplished at all," said Judge Guffy while in this city today. "It must be done by the third party, and I think there will be a third party after this election. The Republican party is going to win, and the Democratic party go out of existence, and then the third party will be established by the reform elements in both parties, and the Republican party will be put out of business. I am returning to the Republican party this year because every time the reformers see that the Democrats have a chance to win they vote with the Republicans, hoping the time will come to put the Democratic party out of business and get the third party on a solid and winning footing."

Judge Guffy has a record that the most enthusiastic reformer might be proud of, for he has been a member of every party started since and even for some years before the war.

"He is a clever writer, but he has much to learn."

"I told him that everybody was talking about his latest book, and he was foolish enough to ask what it is they are saying."—Smart Set.

RINGLING SHOWS COME TO PADUCAH

First Bill Car Arrives to Plaster the Boards.

Some of the Attractions the Big Circus Has to Offer This Season.

THE STARTLING FREE ACTS.

Ringling Brothers' circus is to exhibit in Paducah Wednesday, September 30.

In its entirety from the 1,280 people employed, the wonderful herd of 40 elephants, 108 cage zoo, to the pink lemonade man, the circus will be transported to this city from Dyersburg, Tenn., in 85 double-length cars.

The first brigade of billers arrived last night in one of the largest and most modern equipped advertising cars ever constructed. The interior is handsomely finished in oak and has "all the comforts of home." It contains two spacious offices in which the executive business is performed, a gentleman's smoking compartment, and the berths are so arranged that each person has practically a private section. It is from this car that the first billing matter is posted and distributed. Early this morning seven wagons loaded with paper and bill-posters were dispatched into the country, where every barn, fence and bill board within forty miles will be clothed in posters announcing the marvels in store for those who come to town on show day.

Ringling Brothers present to the public this year the largest show in the world. They employ more people, carry more horses, exhibit more wild animals, use more cars and make the largest street parade. Their big tent will seat 15,000 people comfortably, and 375 performers appear in the enormous program. The feats and features are presented in three rings, on two stages, a quarter-mile racing track and upon a forest of overhanging appliances. Two-thirds of the artists are new to this country, having made their American debut under the Ringling banner at Chicago, April 3, 1908.

Foremost among the long list of riders are Emma Stickney, Elsie St. Leon, Miss Dutton, the Bandos, Clark Brothers, Les Bastines, Hobsons, Frank Schaefer and John Agee. In the great company of unique gymnasts are the Patty Brothers, Marguerite and Hanley, Marnello-Barnitz, James Dutton, Jordan family, Clarkonians, Aerial Smiths and Aerial Shaws, De Marnello, Millets, Ward troupe, Carnellos and Ballotts, the wonderful Mirza-Golems, 8 Bel-fords, 8 Carnellos, 8 St. Leons, Pro-sit trio, Horton and Linden, Burgeons and Claire, Martell family and the Jackson family and the great Al-vordez are specialties of universal fame.

Among the animal performers are the Riccabono horses from Russia. One of the wonderful brutes appears in male attire, and, after having dressed in human fashion, reads the evening paper, then removes his clothes and retires in a real bed where her journeys to Dreamland; Koroake's porkies, from Australia, shoot the chutes, climb ladders, walk on rolling globes and perform various other stunts which never fail to provoke laughter; Wormwood's human acting dogs and monkeys, and Herr Fander's marvelously trained elephants.

The performance this year begins with a new spectacle and closes with the greatest thriller of the age. Seated in an automobile of tremendous power and ponderous weight Miss Roche releases the car and guides the monster down a precipice-like steel track at the speed of the fastest locomotive. At the incline's terminal the charger swings from an upward curve and turns two complete somersaults, high in the air, before it lands safely upon a distant platform, and thence wheels into the hippodrome track.

The big, new street parade which is making the Ringlings more famous than ever, will move promptly on show day morning at 10 o'clock following the route usually taken.

WOMAN CLIMBS HUASCARAN.

Miss Annie Peck Reaches Top of the South American Peak.

Lima, Peru, Sept. 9.—Miss Annie S. Peck, of Providence, R. I., the mountain climber, has succeeded, on her second attempt within a month, in reaching the summit of Mount Huascaran. She calculates that the height of the summit is 26,000 feet. A Swiss companion of Miss Peck had a foot and both hands frozen, which caused gangrene to set in, and an Indian guide was miraculously saved from death after falling a thousand feet down a ravine. This last attempt of Miss Peck to scale the Huascaran was begun August 29. Two weeks previously she climbed the mountain to a height of 25,000 feet, but was compelled to return to the lowlands on account of the illness of one of her guides.

SULTAN'S RULE NEAR END.

Nakle Pasha Says He Must Abdicate or Be Deposed.

New York, Sept. 9.—Nakle Mout-ran Pasha, the principal financial backer of the young Turk movement and an ultraenthusiast himself, announced at a meeting of Turkish Lib-eralists at the Hotel Plaza that Abdul Hamid II. would be allowed to rule over the Ottoman empire one month more. If the sultan refuses to abdicate in that time he will be deposed, peacefully if possible, forcibly if necessary, says Moutran Pasha.

WARNS UNION MEN

HEARST MAKES ATTACK ON
BRYAN AND GOV. HASKELL.

Charges Haskell With Membership in Anti-Union League—Bryan
Denounced Glass Workers.

Davenport, Iowa, Sept. 9.—Under perfect weather conditions 5,000 workmen paraded here previous to a tri-city celebration at Suburban Island Park, participated in by labor unions of Davenport, Rock Island and Moline, Illinois.

Thomas L. Hisgen, Independence candidate for president, occupied a carriage in the parade. W. R. Hearst and Mr. Hisgen were the principal speakers at a picnic this afternoon.

My Friends: I intend to talk politics, because we are all thinking politics, and talking politics at this time, but I do not intend to make a political speech or a partisan speech.

"Of course, labor unions ought to go into politics. Why not?"

Now Mr. Gompers agrees with me that labor unions ought to go into politics, but I don't agree with him on the way labor unions ought to go into politics, and inasmuch as he was wrong and I was right before, maybe he is wrong and I am right now.

Mr. Gompers thinks that the right way is for all labor unions to lay their votes in his basket, like a lot of good, dutiful, political hens, and for him to take his basket to market and peddle the contents to the Republican party or the Democratic party.

The objections to this plan are many, and they are convincing and conclusive.

First, you cannot afford to repose so much power with any man or any set of men. There is a distant danger that the contents of the basket would be peddled more for the benefit of the owner of the basket than for the advantage of the honest, truthful layers of the votes. There would be competition for the contents of the basket of a kind that would debauch and destroy your organization without benefitting the humble members.

Second, you would never be harmonious in your ideas or how the votes should be delivered. You would be divided by differences of opinion; you would be disrupted by dissensions.

Third, you would get little or no result from such a system for the men elected would be primarily Democrats or Republicans. They would be your friends before election, but would forget all about you after election.

Fourth, you have tried out the old parties time and again, and have found them wanting every time, and it would be absurd for you to waste your time and your opportunities perishing in a policy that has continually persisting in a policy that has continually proved a failure.

Makes Charge Against Bryan.

If any one tells you that the Democratic party is a new party, with a new attitude toward workingmen, I stand ready to prove that it is the same old Democratic party, with the same old deceitful attitude toward workingmen.

When, years ago, workingmen were in Washington arguing for what they honestly believed to be for the best interest of themselves and their families and their fellow-citizens generally, and Mr. Bryan called them "public beggars," he did not show a spirit in sympathy with American labor or in harmony with American ideas.

And when Mr. Bryan the other day appointed as treasurer of the Democratic campaign fund this man Haskell, a member of a secret citizens' alliance hostile to labor in a mean and cowardly way, he did not show in that either a spirit in sympathy with American labor or in accordance with American fair play.

Takes Up Haskell Charge.

Now, for the Haskell matter. Everybody knows that just as Mr. Roosevelt ran the Republican convention to suit himself, so Mr. Bryan ran the Democratic convention to suit himself.

Everybody knows that Mr. Bryan made Mr. Haskell chairman of the committee of resolutions and platform.

Everybody does not know, however, that Mr. Haskell is a member of a petty secret citizens' alliance, whose one object is to crush labor unions and reduce wages.

When everybody does know this they will understand why the Democratic platform, which Mr. Haskell supervised, contains a labor plank meant to defraud laboring men and deceive the citizens generally.

Now, my friends, Mr. Bryan, that unselfish friend of the workingman, has lately made Mr. Haskell, that other unquestioned friend of the workingman, National treasurer of the Democratic campaign fund.

Mr. Gompers urges you to send in your dollars to this fund. I am not a leader of labor; I am only an humble follower in the ranks.

Don't let me prevent you from sending your dollars if you want to. I have never asked the workingmen to do anything they did not want to do or not to do anything they did want to do.

Just remember, however, that some part of the fund you are asked to build up with your hard-earned dollars may be used "to check" what Mr. Haskell calls, in so friendly a way,

"This contemptible fanaticism of trades unionism."

The Remedy That Does.

"Dr. King's New Discovery is the remedy that does the healing others promise but fail to perform," says Mrs. E. R. Pierson, of Auburn Centre, Pa. "It is curing me of throat and lung trouble of long standing; that other treatments relieved only temporarily. New Discovery is doing me so much good that I feel confident its continued use for a reasonable length of time will restore me to perfect health." This renowned cough and cold remedy and throat and lung healer is sold at all druggists, 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

That Wonderful Wheat.

The 100-bushel wheat seems to be turning about like the seedless apple. It is a reality, but not worth having. The 100-bushel wheat lacks the good qualities of the kind that produces 25 to 30 bushels to the acre. The seedless apple looks good, but no one who ever ate one wanted another. There is a limit to the stand ready to prove that it is the same old Democratic party, with the same old deceitful attitude toward workingmen.

Brand him as a prevaricator and call him a harder name if you like. We will give anyone $500.00 who will arrange a wager for from $5000.00 up, on that subject.

There never has been and never will be a particle of coffee in Postum, unless put there after leaving the factory!

The strongest proof of the above is an analysis by a real chemist and a visit to the factory where "the door is unbolted" and all may see, as thousands do, how we make Postum, and what we make it of—CLEAN, HARD WHEAT and a small amount of molasses. But—we include the outside coat of the wheat, which contains the Phosphate of Potash—the natural food for brain and nerves—grown in the wheat!

This, and the special roasting and blending process we invented, combine to make the "Postum Flavour" quite like coffee but by careful tasting the real Postum flavour appears distinct. Every Real Chemist knows it. Experience proves

IN order that THRIFTY HOUSEWIVES might not be deprived of the pleasure and all round satisfaction to be derived from the use of a GAS RANGE during the winter months, a CLEVER MAN has invented a COKE HEATER, by means of which the KITCHEN can be kept as WARM as desired.

An examination of the picture will show that this COKE HEATER attached to GAS RANGE has a gas burner for lighting the coke and requires very little space. Some COKE HEATERS have a WATER COIL for heating the kitchen tank.

Daily Thought.

THE COUNCIL DEFERS.

We have the utmost confidence that, when the ordinance, compelling the removal of the dangerous coal oil and gasoline tanks of the Standard Oil company away from Tenth and Monroe streets, is brought to final vote in the general council, sufficient members will stand by the citizens of Paducah to pass it, although action was deferred last night for two weeks, to allow the members another opportunity to investigate the situation.

Standard Oil employees have been heard to declare that the tanks will not be removed, and citizens should not consider everything accomplished just because the committee has instructed that an ordinance be prepared. To be sure, the matter was referred by the general council to that committee and it has been dragging for weeks since the last fire was started by tanks in the heart of the city lighting from locomotive sparks, but now the lower board grants two weeks more delay, and the tanks will not be removed and the danger averted until the ordinance is passed.

No doubt the officials of the company will be glad to conduct the councilmen on the investigation just as they have conducted other city officials, and for that reason the citizens should not neglect this important matter. They must show these councilmen that they are just as vitally concerned in the presence of the gas generating oil and gasoline tanks in the heart of the city, as is the owner of the tanks. Some times important matters are allowed to die in legislative bodies of neglect. Let us not permit such a fate to overtake this measure, lest we awaken early some morning to find the sky lit with the flames of Paducah, our property in process of destruction and our lives in danger.

OAK GROVE AND THE PARK SYSTEM.

What has become of that project to raise $2,500 for the erection of a handsome stone entrance to Oak Grove cemetery?

That is a worthy project. Oak Grove cemetery is beautifully located, but it is not improved to the extent it should be. The present entrance adds nothing to the impressiveness or dignity of the city of the dead. We usually show our visitors our cemeteries in driving about the city, and the way the dead are honored is one of the means we have of judging a community.

When that entrance is erected, it should be at the end of Fountain avenue.

due. The old gate should be left where it is, and kept up, because it is a handy way in from the north side of the city, and it is the street car approach; but we shall never get value received from the expenditure of that money unless the new entrance is placed on Fountain avenue.

No other street in the city is so favorably laid out to make an elegant entrance to the cemetery effective. Anyone walking the length of Fountain avenue from Broadway to the cemetery can appreciate the possibilities of the wide, tree flanked avenue, with its terraced lawns, and Lang circle half way of the distance, covered with noble trees and with a handsome monument (to be) in the center. Moreover, Fountain avenue marks the beginning of the newer part of Paducah, where the greatest growth is and will continue to be. It opens into Jefferson boulevard, that will be greatly improved, and some day, of course, Fountain avenue will be extended southward across Bradshaw creek.

The criticism of an "entrance on Trimble street is that one comes upon it suddenly and all unawares. One may be startled by a sudden shock to the senses, but never deeply impressed. The solemn beauty of Forest Hill cemetery at Cleveland, Ohio, would never be felt in its full effectiveness, if one did not first traverse the length of Euclid avenue, with its sweeping lawns, noble trees and monument and fountain marked corners and parks.

With the new entrance on Fountain avenue Oak Grove cemetery may be linked with what some day will be Paducah's park and boulevard system. Improvements of a city should be made with some general, definite plan in view, not haphazard, and the time to begin is at the time of the first improvement.

THE MAYOR AND THE SCHOOLS.

Of all the malevolent and absurd utterances on a subject that demands our most serious consideration, the attempt of the morning paper today to make use of the deplorable school situation to abuse the present city administration, was the most pitiable that ever has come to our notice. That paper never did anything to aid in the expurgation of the old school board after it had recklessly plunged the schools in debt and squandered the money designed for the pay of teachers; but it did misrepresent Mayor Smith when he began his crusade against the bawdy houses; it suppressed the news of his "near beer" crusade, and his veto of the ordinance, permitting the transfer of saloon licenses no doubt gave that loyal organ the grouse, which resulted in the effort to fasten on his administration responsibility for the shortage of school funds.

It was through the vigorous efforts of Mayor Smith that the legislature authorized the city to increase saloon licenses, thus providing sufficient revenue to maintain the city for the fiscal year, and the other revenue raising steps he has taken to provide for legitimate city expenses are sufficient to stamp his administration as a success. Perhaps, then, it was Mayor Smith's success that induced the next-morning paper to turn in desperation to him, hoping that by putting him on his mettle he might be induced to take a hand in the school situation. If he does, rest assured, something will happen; but as to just how he is to do it, our next-morning contemporary has nothing to offer.

It does not know, maybe, that the school board is a distinct corporation, receiving a certain pro rata from the state and a 25 cent levy on city property; that it can sue and be sued in its own name; that even in this matter of issuing bonds the board does not have to consult the city authorities. Any interference of the mayor could justly be resented by the school trustees, and he would have no right to interfere more than any other citizen.

As to diverting funds from the city for school purposes: there are no funds to divert; if there were funds they already would have been appropriated to other purposes, something that is done in January of each year; and if there were funds to be diverted, not the mayor, but the general council would be the proper one to do that.

Does our disingenuous contemporary really believe that all the money, which is collected in taxes from the people for city expenses is dumped in the lap of Mayor Smith for him to do with just as he pleases, and that when we desire more money for the schools all we have to do is to ask Mayor Smith to give us as much as we need?

If it does not believe this, will it please wake up and tell us how Mayor Smith is to relieve the situation, giving figures and other necessary data? If it can find a way for Mayor Smith to relieve the situation, believe us, Mayor Smith will go to the rescue of the school board. At any rate, it is flattering to Mayor Smith, if not very complimentary to the school board, that even so unrelenting a foe of the administration, as the next-morning News-Democrat has proven itself to be, should turn to him for aid.

GIRL ATHLETE FATALITY HURT

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 9.—Mlle. Marie La Blanche, one of the performers at the Toronto exhibition, was probably fatally injured last night. Her act was to slide down a wire stretched from a high pole to the ground hanging by her teeth. Last night she had hardly started when the pole began to lean over, causing the wire to sag and throwing her to the ground. Her spine was broken.

AN EXCHANGE OF MESSAGES.

"I am 17" asked John Armitage soberly. He tossed the stick of a match into the fireplace, where a pine knot smoldered; drew his pipe into a glow and watched Oscar screw the top on a box of ointment which he had applied to Armitage's arm. The little soldier turned and stood sharply at attention.

"You are Mr. John Armitage, sir. A man's name is what he says it is. It is the rule of the country."

"Thank you, Oscar. Your words reassure me. There have been times lately when I have been in doubt myself. You are a pretty good doctor."

"First aid to the injured. I learned the trick from a hospital steward. If you are not poisoned and do not die you will recover—yes?"

"Thank you, sergeant. You are a consoling spirit, but I assure you on my honor as a gentleman that if I die I shall certainly haunt you. This is the fourth day. Tomorrow I shall throw away the bandage and be quite ready for more trouble."

"It would be better on the fifth."

"The matter is settled. You will now go for the mail, and do take care that no one poisons you on the way. Your death would be a positive loss to me. Oscar, and if any one asks how my majesty is—mark, my majesty—prayer say that I am quite well and equal to ruling over many kingdoms."

"Yes, sir."

And Armitage roared with laughter as the little man, pausing as he buckled a cartridge belt under his coat, bowed, with a fine mockery of reverence.

"If a man were king he could have a devilish fine time of it, Oscar."

"He could review many troops, and they would fire salutes until the powder cost much money."

"You are mighty right, as we say in Montana, and I'll tell you quite confidentially, sergeant, that if I were out of work and money and needed a job the thought of being king might tempt me. These gentlemen who are trying to stick knives into me think highly of my chances. They may force me into the business." And Armitage rose and kicked the flaring knot.

Oscar drew on his gauntlet with a jerk.

"They killed the great prime minister—yes?"

"They undoubtedly did, Oscar."

"He was a good man; he was a very great man," said Oscar slowly and went quickly out and closed the door softly after him.

The life of the two men in the bungalow was established in a definite routine. Oscar was drilled in habits of observation and attention, and he realized without being told that some serious business was afoot. He knew that Armitage's life had been attempted and that the receipt and dispatch of telegrams was a part of whatever errand had brought his master to the Virginia hills. His occupations were wholly to his liking; there was simple food to eat; there were horses to tend, and his errands abroad were of the nature of scouting and in keeping with one's dignity who had been a soldier. He rose often at night to look abroad, and sometimes he found Armitage walking the veranda or returning from a tramp through the wood. Armitage spent much time studying papers, and once, the day after Armitage submitted his wounded arm to Oscar's care, he had seemed upon the verge of a confidence.

"To save life, to prevent disaster, to do a little good in the world, to do something for Austria—such things are to the soul's credit, Oscar." And then Armitage's mood changed, and he had begun chaffing in a fashion that was beyond Oscar's comprehension.

The little soldier rode over the hills to Lamar station in the waning spring twilight, asked at the telegraph office for messages, stuffed Armitage's mail into his pockets at the postoffice and turned home as the moonlight poured down the slopes and flooded the valleys.

At the gate of the hunting park grounds he bent forward in the saddle to lift the chain that held it, urged his horse inside, bent down to refasten it, and as his fingers clutched the iron a man rose in the shadow of the little lodge and clasped him about the middle. The iron chain swung free and rattled against the post, and the horse snorted with fright, then at a word from Oscar was still. There was the barest second of waiting, in which the long arms lightened and the great body of his assailant hung heavily about him; then he dug spurs into the horse's flanks, and the animal leaped forward, with a snort of rage; jumped out of the path and tore away through the woods.

Oscar's whole strength was taxed to hold his seat as the burly figure thumped against the horse's flanks. He had hoped to shake the man off, but the great arms still clasped him. The situation could not last. Oscar took advantage of the moonlight to choose a spot in which to terminate it. He had his bearings now, and as they crossed an opening in the wood he suddenly loosened his grip on the horse and flung himself backward. His assailant, no longer supported, rolled to the ground, with Oscar on top of him, and the freed horse galloped away toward the stable.

A rough and tumble fight now followed. Oscar's lithe, vigorous body writhed in the grasp of his antagonist, now free, now clasped by giant arms. They saw each other's faces plainly in the clear moonlight, and at breathless pauses in the struggle their eyes maintained the state of war. At one instant, when both men lay with arms interlocked, half lying on their thighs, Oscar hissed in the giant's ear:

"You are a Servian. It is an ugly race."

And the Servian cursed him in a fierce growl.

"We expected you. You are a bad hand with the knife," grunted Oscar, and, feeling the bellowslike chest beside him expand as though in preparation for a renewal of the fight, he suddenly wrenched himself free of the Servian's grasp, leaped away a dozen paces to the shelter of a great pine and turned, revolver in hand.

"Throw up your hands!" he yelled.

The Servian fired without pausing for aim, the shot ringing out sharply through the wood. Then Oscar discharged his revolver three times in quick succession, and while the discharges were still keen on the air he drew quickly back to a clump of underbrush and crept away a dozen yards to watch events. The Servian, with his eyes fixed upon the tree behind which his adversary had sought shelter, grew anxious and thrust his head forward warily.

Then he heard a sound as of some one running through the wood to the left and behind him, but still the man he had grappled on the horse made no sign. It dawned upon him that the three shots fired in front of him had been a signal, and in alarm he turned toward the gate, but a voice near at hand called loudly, "Oscar!" and repeated the name several times.

Behind the Servian the little soldier answered sharply in English:

"All steady, sir!"

The use of a strange tongue added to the Servian's bewilderment, and he fled toward the gate, with Oscar hard after him. Then Armitage suddenly leaped out of the shadows directly in his path and stopped him with a leveled revolver.

"Easy work, Oscar! Take the gentleman's gun and be sure to find his knife."

The task was to Oscar's taste, and he made quick work of the Servian's pockets.

"Your horse was a good dispatch bearer. You are all sound, Oscar?"

"Never better, sir. A revolver and two knives"—The weapons flashed in the moonlight as he held them up.

"Good! Now start your friend toward the bungalow."

They set off at a quick pace, soon found the rough driveway and trudged along silently, the Servian between his captors.

When they reached the house, Armitage flung open the door and followed Oscar and the prisoner into the long sitting room.

Armitage lighted a pipe at the mantel, readjusted the bandage on his arm and laughed aloud as he looked upon the huge figure of the Servian standing beside the sober little cavalierman.

"Oscar, there are certainly giants in these days, and we have caught one. You will please see that the cylinder of your revolver is in good order and pre-

AGREE ON CONVICT LEASE.

The Georgia Legislature May Vote Today.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 9.—If the senate and house approve the work of a conference committee, which has been considering the convict lease bills of the two branches of the legislature, the lease system in Georgia will end on March 31, 1909. A compromise was reached by the committee today and its report submitted to both houses.

No action was taken by either body the question of agreeing to the report going over until tomorrow.

The agreement reached by the committee provides for the ending of the lease system on March 31, 1909; the proportion of male felony convicts among the counties for use on public roads; the distribution of convicts not so taken to counties desiring more than their share, and the leasing of those remaining to municipalities, the surplus to be kept on state farms and used in contract work under the direction of the prison commission with the approval of the governor.

The Badge of Honesty

Is on every wrapper of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery because a full list of the ingredients composing it is printed there in plain English. Forty years of experience has proven its superior worth as a blood purifier and invigorating tonic for the cure of stomach disorders and all liver ills. It builds up the run-down system as no other tonic can in which alcohol is used. The active medicinal principles of native roots such as Golden Seal and Queen's root, Stone and Mandrake root, Bloodroot and Black Cherry bark are extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce at Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet which quotes extracts from well-recognized medical authorities such as Drs. Bartholow, King, Scudder, Coe, Ellingwood and a host of others, showing that these roots can be depended upon for their curative action in all weak states of the stomach, accompanied by indigestion or dyspepsia as well as in all bilious or liver complaints and in all wasting diseases where there is loss of flesh and gradual running down of the strength and system.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes rich pure blood and so invigorates and regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, and through them, the whole system. Thus all skin affections, blotches, pimples and eruptions as well as scrofulous swellings and old open running sores or ulcers, are cured and healed. In treating old running sores, or ulcers, it is well to insure their healing to apply to them Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve. If your drugist don't happen to have this Salve in stock, send fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and a large box of the "All-Healing Salve" will reach you by return post.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicinal or known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

In the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Fowler, Mrs. Torian, Miss Mary Boswell, Miss Rebecca Reed, of Fort Smith, Ark., Miss Mary Kerr, of Dyersburg, Tenn., Mrs. George Flournoy, Mrs. Edward Brinkhurst, Mrs. Henry Rudy, Miss Mattie Fowler, Miss Anita Keller, Miss Lillian Gregory and Messrs. A Brilliant Musical Event.

A brilliant audience at the Auditorium rink last night was delighted with a classical program, varied in style but of unvarying excellence of quality. Prof. Harry Gilbert, pianist, Mr. Ralph Wylie, of Nashville, violinist, Mr. Karl Smith, of Kansas City, cellist, and Miss Mamie Dreyfuss, of Paducah, vocalist, comprised the performers. The program ranged from solos to trios for the instruments, while Miss Dreyfuss' reputation as a vocalist lost nothing by three numbers which she sang. She was compelled to acknowledge the applause accorded her numbers. The three gentlemen are masters of their respective instruments and interpreted the difficult pieces with the nicety of execution, sympathy and accuracy that brought out, not only the melody, but the perfect meaning of the compositions.

Camping Party.

Camp "No Care" on the upper lake across the Ohio river has been a popular place this summer, and a number of Paducah people have enjoyed several weeks of fishing and sport. The tents have remained up since June, and when business is dull fishing is good at the lakes. The following returned this morning from the camp after a several days' successful fishing excursion: Mr. and Mrs. G. Z. Umbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Davis, Miss Julia Depew, Gus Starr and F. S. Digel.

Two Fires at Hickman.

Hickman, Ky., Sept. 9.—Fire broke out yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Alex. Wilson, three miles south of town. The fire was not discovered until the roof was ready to fall in, and they did not have time to save anything at all. The smokehouse, with all their meat; barn and all outbuildings burned to the ground. The cause of the fire is not known. The loss is $1,500, with no insurance.

Last night at 11:20 o'clock fire broke out in the Hickman Hardware company's warehouse, the fire starting in the part occupied by Ledford & Randle, where they had their hay and other feedstuff stored. It is thought the fire started from a spark falling from a train which went by just about an hour before the fire was discovered. This building set fire to the Hickman Grocery company's warehouse, which was totally destroyed with all contents. The part occupied by the Farmers' Hardware company was saved after a hard fight. Ben G. Hale had an office in the building also, but this part was saved. Loss was estimated at $1,200. The Hickman Grocery company had $300 insurance.

BRYAN TO FIGHT FOR NEW ENGLAND

Will Attempt to Swing Connecticut and Rhode Island.

Mack's Figures Show Effort Chase After Rainbow Unless Unexpected Happens.

TARIFF REVISION IS AN AID

(By Raymond, in Tribune.)

Boston, Mass., Sept. 9.—Acting upon the advice of his political managers and with a definite purpose in view, Mr. Bryan is to make a spectacular campaign in the northeastern portion of the United States for the express purpose of breaking into the solid vote of New England.

It is a significant fact that the whole animus of this campaign is to be directed toward the two southernmost states of the New England combination. That is to say that the Democratic managers have figured out that Connecticut and Rhode Island are ground upon which may be sown Democratic seed with some slight prospect of reaping a fair crop of electoral votes. As for the rest of New England, it is regarded as hopeless. Massachusetts, Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine are practically certain to return their votes in the electoral college for Taft.

Years ago, in the mugwump and Cleveland day, Connecticut had a habit of going Democratic. Within recent years Rhode Island has elected a Democratic governor two or three times, in spite of the fact that the state is normally Republican and always sends a Republican to the United States Senate.

Allen Voters Want Revision.

In the southern part of New England there has been an infusion of foreign and Canadian blood which has modified political conditions to a large degree. The demand for real tariff revision has been more pronounced in Connecticut than anywhere else in New England. Much of this demand has come from the Canadian element, which is dominant all over Connecticut, as well as in the cotton mills in the Rhode Island section.

These former citizens of the dominion have been influenced by domestic affiliations, and also by the desire to trade freely with their Canadian cousins. The result has been a manifest dissatisfaction with the Republican tariff program, and it is this dissatisfaction which the Democratic managers hope to take advantage of in the coming campaign.

It is expected that Mr. Bryan will come into New England on or about Sept. 12 and he will remain here for at least one week. He will devote almost all of his time to Connecticut and Rhode Island. This is part of a Democratic plan originally submitted to Chairman Mack and thoroughly approved by him as a means to securing the election without the electoral votes of New York or New Jersey.

Bryan Forsakes All Conservatism.

When at Denver Mr. Bryan sent his orders from Lincoln, insisting upon the adoption of a platform which would embody the most radical ideas of Oklahoma Democracy. He bade farewell forever to the conservative Democracy of New York and New Jersey. His suggestions in regard to the anti-injunction plank were bad enough, but the principles of the Democratic platform in regard to bank insurance were infinitely worse. They are an investing public in New York and New Jersey. The savings banks of both of those states are founded upon the safest of financial principles. It was offensive to those people to think that one bank should be made sponsor for another financial institution.

Mr. Bryan's theories in regard to banking were almost as offensive as his addition to the free coinage of silver idea, and the whole tenor of the Denver platform was much as to alienate at once and forever the conservative Democratic vote of New York and New Jersey.

In New England the conditions are essentially different. There is a demand for tariff revision in Massachusetts which cannot be ignored. It is largely concerned, however, with local conditions, and it free hides were provided under the Republican system Massachusetts would be content to go ahead with the highest possible protective device ever yet invented.

Four States Sure For Taft.

In the southern part of New England political conditions are wholly industrial. There have been repeated serious strikes in Fall River, Mass., and these have been reflected in Providence, New London, New Haven, Bridgeport, and other manufacturing centers in Rhode Island and Connecticut.

It is a well known fact that the Republican majority in Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont, and Maine cannot readily be disturbed, and those states are practically certain to deliver their electoral votes to Taft and Sherman. Connecticut and Rhode Island are fighting ground, and the Democrats rightly look upon that section of New England as such.

In making his foray into New England Mr. Bryan is only following the advice of his Democratic managers, who figure out that there is possibility of his winning the election even without New York and New Jersey.

ACT QUICKLY.

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Paducah.

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in times of danger. Backache is kidney danger. Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly. Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ills.

Plenty of evidence to prove this. Mrs. George Romain, 2233 Meyers street, Paducah, Ky., says: "I was a sufferer for a long time from kidney trouble. I was bothered by an aching back and lameness in my shoulders; in fact, never was without a pain of some sort. I used a great deal of medicine but never found anything that relieved me so much as Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at DuBois & Co.'s drug store. I felt that they would help me and they certainly did, for I am now in excellent health." (From statement given in 1900.)

A Permanent Cure. On February 18 Mrs. Romain said: "I made a statement for publication several years ago telling of the great benefit I received from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Now after a lapse of time I am glad to say that I have not had an attack of kidney trouble since, so I have every reason to believe they effected a permanent cure."

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

which have been crossed out of the Democratic column because of the radical character of the Denver platform. In all of the Democratic figures they naturally take account first of all of the solid south.

Vote of the Solid South.

This is composed of eleven states, whose electoral strength may be set down in the following column:

Alabama	11
Arkansas	11
Florida	11
Georgia	13
Louisiana	9
Mississippi	10
North Carolina	9
Tennessee	12
Texas	12
Virginia	12
Total	108

These are in the electoral college, since the admission of Oklahoma, 483 votes. Of these a candidate for the presidency must secure 248 for a choice. Mr. Bryan with his solid south is therefore a long way from election unless he can secure material assistance north of Mason and Dixon's line.

It Can't Be Beat.

The best of all teachers is experience. C. M. Harden, of Silver City, North Carolina, says: "I find Electric Bitters does all that's claimed for it. For Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles it can't be beat. I have tried it and find it a most excellent medicine." Mr. Harden is right; it's the best of all medicines also for weakness, lame back, and all run down conditions. Best too for chills and malaria. Sold under guarantee at all druggists, 50c.

Amenities of Travel.

A meek-looking little man with a large pasteboard box climbed on the car. As he did so he bumped into a sleepy, corpulent passenger with a self-satisfied look and two little dabs of side whiskers. As the car rounded a curve the box rubbed against him again and he growled: "This is no freight car, is it?" "Nope," returned the meek little chap with the box, "and when you come right down to it, it ain't any cattle car, either, is it?"—Argonaut.

By relying on his own judgment a man succeeded in not accumulating a lot of money.

STANDARD'S TANK NOT DISPOSED OF

Councilmen Wish to Investigate Situation.

Tenth and Monroe Streets Menace Goes Over Two Weeks for the Lower Board.

MAYOR SMITH'S VETO STANDS.

By lack of one vote the board of councilmen failed to pass over the mayor's veto the ordinance permitting a transfer of saloon licenses. The vote was 7 yeas and 3 nays. Those voting yeas were Councilmen Lindsey, Foreman, Ford, Lackey, Mayer, Van Meter and Wilson. Those voting nays were Councilmen Duvall, Kreutzer and Young.

Routine business was all that went before the council at last night's meeting. The joint finance committee reported the expense of $12,781.99. The report was received and filed, and warrants were ordered drawn for the payment of same.

City Solicitor James Campbell, Jr., was granted expense money to go to New York and Boston to take depositions in the litigation between the city and the East Tennessee Telephone company.

Several ordinances were given passage by the board. An ordinance providing for the construction of an alley from Thirteenth street to Twelfth street between Jefferson and Monroe streets, was given final passage. An ordinance providing for the construction of granite sidewalks and gutters with granite curbing on the sides of Clark street between T and G streets and Gould avenue, was given first and second passage. Two ordinances were given first and second passage repealing ordinances authorizing and calling for an election on the issue of $250,000 and $150,000 in bonds to be used for street and sidewalk improvements. An ordinance providing for the construction of Fourteenth street by grading and graveling from Burnett street to the west side of Oak Grove cemetery, was given first and second passage.

Action on the ordinance providing and regulating the amount of oil to be stored inside the city limits was deferred till the next regular meeting, so that all members might thoroughly investigate the situation and vote intelligently on the ordinance.

A petition asking the city to give land for a road from the Boswell road on the south to the Hinkleville road on the north, and remove the fences and cut down the timber on the strip of land was referred to the street committee. The city owns part of this land and country residents own the rest. The county will build the road if the city will grant part of the land and clear it.

The city was ordered to bring suit against Mrs. Chase Sanders for not removing a shed and a fence off the street property at Fifteenth street and Broadway.

The report of Meat and Milk Inspector Farley was received and filed. The report of Chief of Police James Collins was received and filed. The roof of the city engineer's office was ordered repaired at a cost not to exceed $25.

Fire Chief James Wood reported the building in the rear of 114 South Second street, occupied by the Jake Biederman Distilling company and owned by J. L. Friedman and Monroe Burnett, in an unsafe condition and liable to fall down at any time, also the building across the street from the city hall, owned by the Charles M. Leake estate. The mayor was authorized to serve notice on these property owners to either have the buildings repaired or torn down.

Saloon license was refused at 136 1/2 Clay street and the money deposited for the license was ordered refunded.

The sanitary committee reported that the sewers in district No. 2 are in bad condition and that the trouble can be remedied by having a small stream of water running in the basins every day. The question was referred to the board of public works.

W. B. Moore was granted a deed to lot 14, block 42, in Oak Grove cemetery.

J. W. Orr, city assessor, reported that he had appointed H. M. Enders as his assistant.

The general council and city was extended an invitation to send delegates to the twelfth annual convention of the League of American Municipalities, to be held at Omaha September 30 and October 1-2.

J. W. Griffith complained of being over-assessed for property on Broadway. The question was referred to the board of supervisors.

The question of putting tarvia on Tenth street between Broadway and Jefferson street, to give it a trial, was referred to the street committee.

The gravel pit near the Riverside hospital was reported again as being in a bad condition and needing draining. The board of health and the street inspector were authorized to find out what was necessary and to do the work at a small expense to the city.

Present at last night's meeting were President Lindsey and Councilmen Duvall, Foreman, Ford, Kreutzer, Lackey, Mayer, Van Meter, Wilson and Young. Councilmen Bowers and Cornelson were absent.

A SENSATION IN RUSTIN CASE

Woman Tells Coroner She Entered Suicide Pact.

Doctor Pointed Out Man Who Would Do the Deed—Latter Makes Denial.

NERVE FAILED THREE TIMES.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 9.—The coroner's inquest into the death of Dr. Frederick Rustin developed several sensations. Mrs. Abbie Rice, the woman who was last known to be in Rustin's company on the night of his death, declared that for some time Rustin had been talking of suicide, but that he wished to disguise the act so as to protect his life insurance for his family.

He induced her to promise to kill him and then take her own life. This was to be done August 28, but her nerve failed. Tuesday night, following, Rustin pointed out to her on the street, a man who, he said, had promised to do the deed, saying that it would be done that night. Later she identified Charles E. Davis, a clerk in a local bank and a member of a prominent family, as the man referred to by Rustin.

Dennis He Made Promise.
Davis, on the stand, testified that he attempted suicide on the night in question, by taking drugs furnished him by Rustin, but denied that he promised to kill the doctor or that he had anything to do with the latter's death. He said the drugs made him sick and he vomited, thus saving his life. He gave no special reason for wishing to end his life except that he had no desire to live. He said he had made previous attempts at suicide. Davis has not been arrested.

Mrs. Rice, in her testimony, said that Rustin first asked her to kill him about two weeks ago and finally she consented and agreed to shoot herself afterwards. She said the shooting was to be done in his office Sunday, August 30, his idea being, she said, that the noise of the passing street cars would drown the report of the revolver shot. She was then to kill herself.

Cunning Scheme.
She said a cunning scheme to avoid her suicide being connected with his murder had been hatched by the doctor. She was to shoot him through the abdomen, then she was to remove the empty cartridge and dispose of it. Then she was to take the revolver away with her, reload it, and kill herself.

In that way only one empty shell, not two would be found when she died by her own hand, and his death and hers could not be connected, to bring shame and humiliation upon his family.

Rustin had bought a revolver at a pawn shop, but had no ammunition.

The woman said she bought some cartridges, but in trying to load the weapon Saturday night she got it out of order so that the killing could not be carried out on Saturday night as planned.

Her Nerve Failed.
The following Friday night she accompanied Rustin to his office. He loaded the pistol and asked her to shoot him. Her nerve failed, however, and Rustin became angry. It was then decided that the shooting was to be done in his barn, the idea being that it would appear that he had been shot by footpads.

"He gave me the gun," said the witness, and I walked up to the alley back of his house, while he went in the front door of the house, intending to go out the back door to the barn. All this happened Friday, August 28. "While I was in the alley some one drove along and I lost my nerve again and went back to Farnam street," said Mrs. Rice.

"I walked east of Farnam street," said Mrs. Rice, "to get away from him, and waited on the next corner for a car."

Rustin was on that very car, according to the woman's statement. She said Rustin was very angry at her desertion and insisted on her coming back to his place.

BRYAN SPEAKS ON STATE AND NATION

Judicial interpretation would be destructive of constitutional government; our constitution can be amended by the people in accordance with the terms of the document itself, and no group of men, however honorable or high minded, can usurp this power without violating the fundamental principles of our government.

"It has been suggested that the rights of the states can lapse through non-use, and that congress is justified in usurping the authority of the state if the state fails to make proper use of it. While this doctrine has been advanced in the pretended interest of the people, it is as insidious and as dangerous an assault as has ever been made on our constitutional form of government. The people of the state can act with more promptness than the people of the nation, and if they fail to act, it must be assumed that the people of the state prefer inaction.

"The real purpose that those have in view who complain of the inaction of the state, is not more strict regulation of corporations, but the relief of corporations from state regulation. "The Democratic party favors the full exercise of the powers of the government for the protection of the rights of the people each government to act within its constitutional sphere. Our platform demands that federal legislation be added to, not substituted for, state legislation.

"The predatory corporations have taken advantage of the dual character of our government and have tried to hide behind state rights when prosecuted in the federal courts and behind the interstate commerce clause of the constitution when prosecuted in the state courts.

No Twilight Zone.
"There is no twilight zone between the nation and the state in which the exploiting interests can take refuge from both. There is no neutral ground where, beyond the jurisdiction of either sovereignty, the plunderers of the public can find a safe retreat. As long as a corporation confines its activities to the state in which it was created, it is subject to state regulation only; but as soon as it invades interstate commerce it becomes amenable to federal laws as well as to the laws of the state which created it and the laws of the states in which it does business.

"How strict can these laws be? Just as strict as may be necessary for the protection of the public. "Our platform outlines the regulation deemed necessary, and the regulation is specifically set forth in order that our opponents may not be able to scare the public by predicting harmful legislation. Our platform, unlike the Republican platform, says what it means and means only what it says.

A distinction is drawn between the railroads and other corporations. The railroad, being a quasi-public corporation and, as such, being permitted to exercise a part of the sovereignty of the state, is subject to regulation at the hands of both the nation and the state, but its regulation is intended, not to cripple the railroads but to increase their efficiency. The people at large are as much interested as the stockholders are in the successful operation of the railroads. Their own pecuniary interests as well as their sense of justice would restrain them from doing anything that would impair the road or reduce its efficiency. The traveling public is vitally interested in the payment of wages sufficient to command the most intelligent service, for life as well as property is in the hands of those who operate the trains, guard the switches and keep the track in repair.

Democratic Party.
"The Democratic party would distinguish between those railroad owners, directors and managers who, recognizing their obligation to the public, earn their salaries by conscientious devotion to the work entrusted to them, and those unscrupulous 'Napoleons of Finance' who use railroads as mere pawns in a great gambling game without regard to the rights of employees or to the interests of the patrons. It is in the interest of honest railroading and legitimate investment that the Democratic party seeks to ascertain the present value of the railroad properties and to prevent for the future the watering of stock and the issue of fictitious capitalization; and it is in the interest of both the railroads and the public that it seeks only such reductions in transportation rates as can be made without wage reduction, without deterioration in the service and without injustice to legitimate investments. The Democratic party insists that in the matter of regulation of railroads both the state governments and the federal government shall act up to, and yet within, their powers; for nothing else will restore the confidence and good will that ought to exist between the railroads and the people. In dealing with manufacturing and trading corporations the Democratic party draws a distinction between those corporations—and they constitute the great majority of all the manufacturing and trading corporations—which are engaged in a legitimate effort to supply what the consumers need, and the very few corporations which are seeking by conscienceless methods to take advantage of the public on the one hand, while on the other hand they bankrupt competitors, oppress the producers of raw materials and deal arbitrarily with their employees. It endeavors to protect the innocent corporations by visiting punishment upon those corporations which are guilty of infractions of the moral and the statute law. Here, too, our platform is specific and no one can use its language to frighten any business man whose transactions are fair and whose income is honestly earned.

"No one can contrast the plain, straightforward declarations of our party with the vague and ambiguous utterances of the Republican leaders and the judgment and good sense of the voters who desire justice for themselves and insist upon justice being done by others. Our party, if entrusted with the power, will remedy the abuses which have grown up under Republican rule, and yet, remedy those abuses with due regard to constitutional limitations and with out injury to any legitimate business interest."

THAW MAY GO TO PITTSBURG

Bankruptcy Hearing and Examination Friday.

Legal Points Involved in Proposed Removal From Insane Asylum Have Never Been Settled.

HE IS ORDERED THERE THEN

New York, Sept. 9.—Unless prevented by the New York authorities Harry K. Thaw will be taken from the Dutchess county jail, Poughkeepsie to Pittsburg, next Friday, to be examined there by his creditors in bankruptcy proceedings. Word reached here this afternoon from Pittsburg that Thaw had been ordered to appear in court there for that purpose.

This announcement followed closely upon information that Thaw's formal acceptance to attend the first meeting in Pittsburg had been filed in that city. Whether he will be allowed to leave the jurisdiction of the authorities of this state, however, has not yet been ascertained. It is believed that it will require more than his mere acceptance to attend the meeting to permit him to leave the jail and go to another state to be examined in the bankruptcy proceedings.

The order directing the slayer of Stanford White to appear in court, is likely to prove a test of whether a man of Thaw's status in the eyes of the law can be withdrawn from the jurisdiction of the state in which he is held, as there is no precedent, District Attorney Jerome has maintained silence in the matter, while other legal authorities identified with the proceedings, have not expressed their opinions.

The chief obstacle in removing Thaw from New York appears to be that once outside the state, it is likely that he could refuse to return, and might not be again returned to Matteawan, to which asylum he was committed by Justice Dowling, at the conclusion of the second murder trial.

If Thaw should determine to oppose any attempt to bring him back from Pennsylvania, it is believed that a legal question would be opened, which would be long fought out, and might, eventually, be won by him.

TAFT TO MAKE EXTENSIVE TRIP

Republican Candidate Determined to Be Active.

On Trip Through Ohio Yesterday—Will Carry on Campaign From Brother's Residence in Cincinnati.

HE SPOKE AT MANY POINTS

Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 8.—That Taft will make a complete and extensive tour in the United States before the November election may be announced as the personal determination of the candidate. This was the result of his successes in campaign speaking today.

Judge Taft's principal speech was at Sandusky, where he declared his intention, if elected, to follow Roosevelt's policies of business honesty. At the same time he made it clear that the regulation of interstate commerce should be both sound in legal principle and speedy and clear, so that the aggregate of capital should not be discouraged and that confidence in commercial stability should be on a firm basis.

In another speech Taft declared that the Republican party had made the best record in labor legislation during the past seven years of all previous records. In still another speech he placed upon the responsibility for at least two years of fighting in the Philippines, which he said would have been unnecessary in the absence of opposition in this country.

En route to Cincinnati Taft made several rear platform speeches to crowds at various stations.

Cincinnati was reached at nearly 9 o'clock, an hour later than scheduled. The Taft family was driven directly to the residence of C. P. Taft from where the campaign of the month of September will be conducted.

WARNS JUDGE TAFT.

Letter Probably Work of An Insane Man.

Topeka, Kan., Sept. 9.—The State Journal today prints an unsigned letter mailed in Topeka in the latter part of August and addressed to Judge William H. Taft, in which the writer warns the Republican presidential nominee of an alleged plot to assassinate him. The letter, which was remailed to the chief of police of Topeka by direction of Judge Taft, was made public here today by the latter official. The writer is believed to be of unsound mind. The letter follows:

Topeka, Kan., Aug. 27.—Secretary of War W. H. Taft.—Dear Sir: I feel it my duty to enlighten you on some facts which greatly concern you. Four or five suspicious-looking men were seen in close conversation in a box car, which was standing in the Rock Island railroad yards. I was very close to the car, and, having rubber heels, they did not hear my approach. They were busy formulating plans to assassinate the next president, who they said would be you, and, moreover, they were going to try their best to implicate some negro men. One of the men was very desperate, and swore he would do it at Chicago the next time you came; but that he would shoot with a rifle from the top of some skyscraper. Yours respectfully,

YOUR UNKNOWN FRIEND.

Latter Accused of Pointing Pistol at Bryant, Who Had Knocked Him Down.

After part of the testimony was heard this morning in police court in the case against James Bryant, charged with breach of peace, and John Nieuhaus, charged with flourishing a pistol, the trial was continued until tomorrow morning in order that witnesses might be secured to straighten out the tangle. Bryant alleges that he and Nieuhaus met and after improper language was used, Nieuhaus drew a gun, and threatened to kill him. Bryant confesses that he knocked Nieuhaus down. Mr. Nieuhaus says that he did not point a pistol at Bryant. One witness swore that Bryant knocked Nieuhaus down, and on rising Nieuhaus drew a pistol from his pocket and then pointed it at Bryant. All witnesses will be assured tomorrow and the Sunday affair aired.

News of Theatres

At H. Wilson.

"Al H. Wilson in a new production entitled "When Old New York Was Dutch." The foregoing sentence, which is an extract from an article in one of the leading theatrical publications, sounds good as a bit of theatrical information and will no doubt be interesting reading for Mr. Wilson's many admirers in this city. While looking over the bookings for the current theatrical season we noticed that Mr. Wilson is under contract to produce his latest play in this city on—well, just what date we will not state at the present time, as we prefer to withhold this information for a future news item.

"A Doll's House."

Within a few weeks the theater-going public of this city will have the opportunity of greeting the popular young emotional actress, Horie Nielson, and her company. Miss Nielson's list of plays consist of "Maggie," "Mrs. Dane's Defense" and "A Doll's House." This list comprises some of the most powerful emotional plays ever written and can only be properly interpreted by an artist of Miss Nielson's superb ability. Miss Nielson today ranks as the best equipped mentally actress before the public, her grasp of the author's full meaning is matchless; her acting is of the most exquisite artistry. No actress has grown more rapidly in popular favor. Her admirers range from coast to coast.

MITCHELL SPEAKS IN MARION.

Denies That "The Rich Are Growing Richer and the Poor Poorer."

Marion, Ill., Sept. 9.—John Mitchell, former president of the United Mine Workers of America, addressed 20,000 people at a Labor Day celebration here today. Mr. Mitchell spoke of the rapid advance of the laboring classes and denounced the idea that "the rich are growing richer, and the poor poorer." He said that recently he had political ambition, but had abandoned all aspirations in that direction. He spoke highly of the judiciary, but criticised its course in some injunctive cases.
